031.	The first significant step in the English language transformation is ^{was} when massive migrations increased the figure of English speakers and contributed to the history of the language.	2
032.	After Further settlements moved along the American coast, the first puritans arrived in the company of other wanderers, yet storms hindered the settlers to reach Virginia and they ended up ^{reaching the} land at Plymouth.	повторение- нее. ошибка 1
033.	Later in the 17 th century, new shiploads of immigrants entailed ^{the} diversity of languages, for instance, Pennsylvania came to be settled by those who were born in different parts of England, so the emerged variety of the spoken languages replaced the dialects and strict distinction between ^{them began} to blur .	2
034.	A wave of immigration from Ireland took place in the 18 th century, and most of the immigrants moved inland, whose pioneering spirit ^{was} thought to be the very reason of the exploitation of the west and south of the country.	2
035.	The population country's population numbered over fifty million, which actually was a century later than the first census, and spread throughout the continent.	2

The text World English elaborates upon the topic of the history of the English language, especially in the ^{New World} American continent. Firstly Firstly, the passage describes the initial English expedition ^{to the American continent} that was conducted by Sir Walter Raleigh, that later becoming a failure. Then there were 'Pilgrim Fathers' who dis disagreed with the English church and founded one of the first successful settlements at Plymouth. Another factor that contributed to the emerging blurring of the dialects' boundaries were massive migrations from from different parts of the British Isles, including Northern Ireland and the Midlands. All of the mentioned events are thought to be vital reasons that affected the linguistic background of the New World. Yet it is mentioned in the text that not only the English speakers influenced the language language spreading language-spreading process in the US. It's then therefore stated that the arrival of [✓] Germans, the Dutch	Количество слов: 203
