The text discusses the role the growth of America played in making English a ^{the} world language of international communication. Since the establishment ^{of the first English settlements} in the 16th century, the new continent has attracted people of various backgrounds, which greatly influenced the development of English and led to the appearance of the American accent. Without a doubt, ^{Without a doubt,} the 'flourishment' of America can be seen as one of the most significant chapters in the history of English. ^{as a world language} However, it can also be highlighted that the British Empire was of paramount importance in this respect as well. Its influence ^{was immense and it} spread over numerous territories all across the world, and was making a valuable contribution to the English as the language of international communication. ¹²⁰ As for my stance on the issue, I would say that the development of America, undoubtedly, was vital for turning English into a world language. Nevertheless, I would like to mention that we should not underestimate the role the British Empire that controlled many other ^{oversees} territories ^{all over the world} played in this process. ⁵¹	Количество слов: 183
