In my commentary about the article "Urban Future" I would like to mark various points of view. The article tells readers about different advantages and disadvantages of life in a big environmental cities and in garden cities. Also the author brings up the problem of urbanization which in the end is no longer known as a problem, but as an advantage. There are are people with various wishes of where to live. We live in a century with a big amount of houses, flats, apartments, and people can choose anything they want and prefer. Citizens most often live in flats in big cities as they work there and probably prefer this pace of life. People who prefer more calm and slow pace of life may choose themselves either to live in a garden city and work in factories at the periphery or to be a citizen and work in office. I think that people can choose where to live depending on their wishes and the amount of cash they are ready to pay for the rent. In conclusion I would like to say that I agree with author's opinion on how he sees needs of a citizen and a person who lives in village.	Количество слов: 203
