The article "Lady Columbia, America's first national mascot" tells a story about Lady Columbia's appearance, popularisation, replacement by other avatars and influence on today's America. ²⁵	Количество слов: 188
Lady Columbia, first portrayed as a goddess, came to embody the nation's expectations and colonial intentions after the Revolution and was the American collective emblem for two centuries, depicting the development of the American democracy. She became a mother mother figure, shaping the an American identity by uniting millions of immigrants. During the 15th and 20th centuries she started losing her popularity and was eventually replaced as a symbol of America by the Statue of Liberty and Uncle Sam during World War I. Nevertheless, her influence is still remains strong and alive. ⁸⁹ Some people believe that Lady America Columbia did not play a significant role in the ^{process of} shaping an American identity and often disregard her importance. They believe a claim that the Statue of Liberty is the only important female avatar for America. ⁶⁰ Having said that, I, personally, disagree with this opinion and firmly believe that Lady Columbia was and still remains a truly important figure in American history, personally serving as a symbol of strength and unity. ³⁴ However, her image is still commonly used in the film industry and her statue commemorates mothers of veterans.	Критерии оценивания	Балл
