Lady Columbia was the first mascot of the US. She was a symbol for colonial America, the Revolution and westward expansion. But her fame began to fade with the approach approach of a new era era. Soon, there were other figures like Uncle Sam and the Statue of Liberty to represent the US. But here's a question: do we need to resurrect the image of Columbia now? Actually famous researchers ^{such as} like professor Smith state that Columbia disappeared because of her resemblance to she reminded people of Greeks and Romans while many longed for modernity. Today, the situation is different, as we keep remembering the ancient times. However, some roll their eyes when this possibility is mentioned. To them, Columbia is a goddess of a cruel world with the oppression of Native Americans and endless wars for our own profit. In my opinion, resurrecting Columbia's image, as an honor to her is the right path. Questionable aspects of history deserve to be taught and remembered, if we mention why they're not entirely good. To conclude, I believe that Lady Columbia is a significant part of American history. She deserves to be remembered, as well as taught about.	Количество слов: 198
