I am absolutely certain that Lady Columbia played a significant role in the history of America. The article provides compelling evidence on the topic, presenting key arguments such as the development of American democracy, the appeal of the national anthem and etc. While I find these points insightful, I would like to offer further reflections. First and foremost, Lady Columbia supported nation's expectations and colonial intentions that corresponded the development of a young democracy. She was a nurturing mother figure and a disciplinarian at the same time. Throughout the Revolution she was a source of strength for the nation. It is meaningful that people depicted her on posters, drew in political cartoons and newspapers. Another important point to consider is the appeal of "Hail Columbia", American first (unofficial) national hymn. This fact proves the incredible significance of Lady's figure for the country that can not be underrated. Even though Lady Columbia once outlived her usefulness for America as a symbol and was replaced with the Statue of Liberty, it seems to me that she still has to be known and appreciated. While being an American collective emblem, she has undoubtedly played a huge role in a young country's history.	Количество слов: 137
